Our sin has been forgiven

We can rest assured that our sin and our sin's have been forgiven. Yes, before the foundations of the earth was made! Wow (See Revelation 13:8; 1 Peter 1:20; Ephesians 1:4). This means that my salvation happened long before I was ever born. How then can anyone say that my salvation is dependant on something "extra" that I have to do today?

Yes, all we have to do is to accept what Jesus has done for us long, long ago. That's it - that's all that is required. Simple.

The fact remains that even after we have become Christians, we at times still sin, despite all the wonderful promises of victory. Rest assured then that forgiveness occurred long, long ago.

Is this not good enough reason to be grateful? Jesus said: "If you love me, keep my commandments" (John 14:15)

Thought For The Day

"The world is not impressed when Christians get rich and say thanks to God. They are impressed when God is so satisfying that we give our riches away for Christ's sake and count it gain"

John Piper

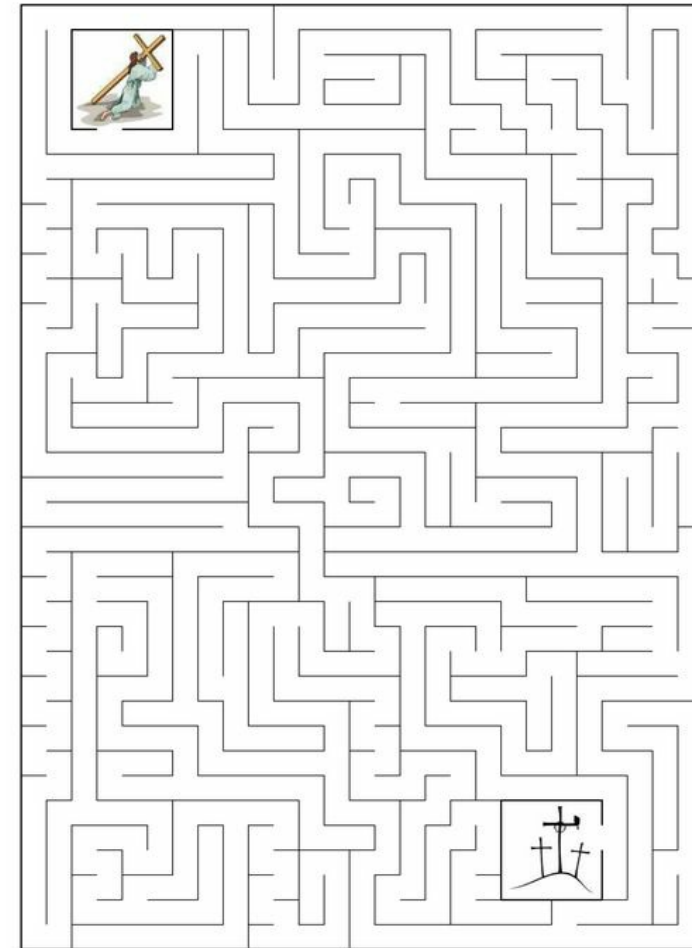

"The road is smooth. So why do you throw rocks before you?"

Ancient expression

Pr Roy Hulbert

Pr Roy Hulbert is now in Naseby Ward in Kettering General Hospital. This in the old part of the hospital. Enter the hospital by the bus stop in Rothwell Road and turn right, walk all the way up to the end of the corridor - up two lots of stairs. He would be most grateful for anyone to visit him.
