Church Hymn Books

It has come to our attention that the church hymn books are “disappearing”. We no longer have enough to go round. Originally we had two shelves of hymn books - now we only have a fraction of that amount.

Would everyone please check in their bags and at home in case you have mistakenly taken a book home. Each book has a ‘Kettering SDA Church’ stamp inside. Thanks for your help in finding our hymn books.

Pr Roy Hulbert

Pr Roy Hulbert was discharged from Glenfield Hospital, Leicester on Thursday 16th August following a successful operation and has been moved to Thackley Green Specialist Care Centre, Lewin Road, Corby. (Just behind Morrisons Supermarket). Roy would welcome any visitors. Let us continue to remember Roy and his family in prayer.

Thought For The Day

“It is possible to offer fervent prayer even while waiting in public or strolling alone, or seated in your shop...while buying or selling...or even while cooking”

When I Say, “I Am A Christian”

When I Say I am A Christian, I'm not shouting I've been saved, I'm whispering I feel lost sometimes, That's why I choose this way.

When I Say I am A Christian, I don't speak with human pride, I'm confessing that I stumble, needing God to be my guide.

When I Say I am A Christian, I'm not trying to be strong, I'm professing that I am weak and pray for strength to carry on.

When I Say I am A Christian, I'm not bragging of success, I'm admitting that I have failed and cannot ever pay the debt.

When I Say I am A Christian, I don't think I know it all, I submit to my confusion asking humbly to be taught.

When I Say I am A Christian, I'm not claiming to be perfect, My flaws are all to visible, but God believes I'm worth it.

When I Say I am A Christian, I still feel the sting of pain, I have my share of heartaches, that's why I seek God's name.

When I Say I am A Christian, I do not wish to judge, I have no authority, I only know I'm loved.
