Church Hymn Books

Some of us have noticed that our church hymn books are “disappearing”. We no longer have enough to go round. Originally we had two shelves of hymn books - now we only have a fraction of that amount.

Would everyone please check in their bags and at home in case you have mistakenly taken a book home. Each book has a ‘Kettering SDA Church’ stamp inside. Thanks for your help in finding our hymn books.

Pr Roy Hulbert

Pr Roy Hulbert was discharged from Glenfield Hospital, Leicester on Thursday 16th August following a successful operation and has been moved to Thackley Green Specialist Care Centre, Lewin Road, Corby. (Behind Morrisons Supermarket).

Roy is expected to remain there for six weeks until around Thursday 27th September. The home try to discourage visitors during meal times: 12:30 - 14:00 and 17:00 - 18:00 Thank you for observing these times.

Roy would welcome any visitors. Let us continue to remember Roy and his family in prayer.

Go the extra mile, it is never crowded

When I Say, “I Am A Christian”

When I Say I am A Christian, I'm not shouting I've been saved, I'm whispering I feel lost sometimes, That's why I choose this way.

When I Say I am A Christian, I don't speak with human pride, I'm confessing that I stumble, needing God to be my guide.

When I Say I am A Christian, I'm not trying to be strong, I'm professing that I am weak and pray for strength to carry on.

When I Say I am A Christian, I'm not bragging of success, I'm admitting that I have failed and cannot ever pay the debt.

When I Say I am A Christian, I don't think I know it all, I submit to my confusion asking humbly to be taught.

When I Say I am A Christian, I'm not claiming to be perfect, My flaws are all to visible, but God believes I'm worth it.

When I Say I am A Christian, I still feel the sting of pain, I have my share of heartaches, that's why I seek God's name.

When I Say I am A Christian, I do not wish to judge, I have no authority, I only know I'm loved.
