Kettering Prayer Meeting

The last Wednesday of each month. All welcome to attend.

“There is no power like that of prevailing prayer - of Abraham pleading for Sodom, Jacob wrestling in the stillness of the night, Moses standing in the breach, Hannah intoxicated with sorrow, David heart-broken with remorse and grief, Jesus in sweat and blood. Add to this list from the records of the church your personal observation and experience, and always there is cost of passion unto blood. Such prayer prevails. It turns ordinary mortals into men of power. It brings power. It brings fire. It brings rain. It brings life. It brings God”

Stronger Together

This is the theme for our Homecoming Day on 7th September. Pr John Ferguson and his wife Zenia will be with us. There will be a vegetarian 'Bring and Share' pot-luck lunch followed by a musical afternoon. Please bring a savoury and a sweet dish, enough for yourselves and some extra in order to cater for any visitors. All are welcome. Please invite your friends to join us.

In the engineering world it is a well known fact that the strength of a suspension bridge is determined by the number of wires that are strung up between the two supporting columns. The more wires the greater the strength. This is a principle that rings true for church. The more of us that stay together the stronger we will be as a church and as individuals. Especially is this true if the central cable in the middle is Jesus. Amen.

Pr Roy Hulbert

Pr Roy Hulbert is at home and would truly appreciate a phone call or a visit.

The most moving experience a preacher can ever have is when, in the middle of the sermon, a strange hush descends upon the congregation. The sleepers have woken up, the coughers have stopped coughing, and the fidgeters are sitting still. No eyes or minds are wandering. Everybody is listening, but not to the preacher. The preacher is forgotten, and the people are face-to-face with the living God, listening to His still, small voice.’
John Stott – Between Two Worlds, p. 97

- Has this ever happened to you as a listener or a preacher?
- Finding it hard to connect with the preacher for the day?

Try one of these:

1. Open your Bible and follow the scripture under consideration.
2. Pray for the Holy Spirit to speak through the preacher.
3. Take down notes: just key points, or a memorable line.
4. Expect to be challenged to grow spiritually and mature (be disciplined).

- ‘Every sermon has the potential to be a life-changing experience’ – every worship, every sermon. Are you expecting that?
