Stronger Together

This is the theme for our Homecoming Day today. We welcome Pr John Ferguson and his wife Zenia and thank them for being with us.

Visitors are welcome to stay for the day.

Guidelines for a tug of war team

"Put the strongest person at the back so that he can use his strength the most and will have the least chance of slipping. In general, alternate the weakest and strongest players so there are no weak spots and in this way everyone helps each other".

This is a bit like Church isn't it?

Everyone mixes together, the strong and the weak help each other. The strongest is not up front making a fancy display of himself. But right at the back as an anchor, supporting the whole team and keeping them together from slipping too.

We are stronger when we pull together

The Power of 40,000

Day of FREE Literature Distribution

Sabbath 28th September from 10:30 - 18:00

Literature includes:

1. The Power of Hope
2. Hope for Today's Families
3. A variety of Focus Magazines.

(All Literature is at the church)

We are facing many challenges in our world today. Both domestic and political. The truth of the matter is that Jesus is on His way to rescue us from this earth filled with pain and sorrow.

With this in mind we have all been invited to take part in the Power Literature Distribution that is happening throughout the British Union Conference on Sabbath 28th September 2019.

Everyone is invited. Members or non-members, children and youth of all ages. Our Adventurers, Pathfinders and Master Guides. Neighbours and friends. Let no-one feel left out.

The printed page still has power to lead people to Christ. "Every year millions upon millions of human souls are passing into eternity un-warned and un-saved. From hour to hour in our varied lives, opportunities to reach and save souls are opened to us. These opportunities are continually coming and going. God desires us to make the most of them." (Ellen White)

This is no time to keep to our own business. Indeed, our business should be the business of God - to reach out to those who do not know Him. If we are ever going to overcome the tendencies of being self-centred and become a people who are conscience of the needs of others. we must make use of all the training wheels God has given us.
