Communion Service - today

Our Communion Service today is an open service. Everyone is welcome to attend; wherever you may feel you are on the spiritual ladder.

On Prayer

"It is said that Dwight L. Moody did not tolerate long prayers. At one of his meetings he called on a brother to pray. The man became lost in his eulogy on the Almighty. As Moody saw no ending in sight, he suddenly said: "While the brother is finishing his prayer let us sing number 75". A medical student in the audience had tried to listen to the long prayer and was just reaching for his hat to leave, when Moody's switch from the long prayer to the song arrested his attention. He put his hat down, remained in the service and was converted. That student became the famous missionary. Sir Wilfred T Grenfell.

Christmas Choir

On Sabbath 14th December Kettering will be having its annual Christmas Service, (Remember it will begin at 10:30 am).

The choir has performed well in previous years and we want this year to be no exception to the rule.

We are getting the choir together and had our first practice last week. If you would like to be part of the choir this year please see Angela today - straight after the service this morning.

Our choir is not singing in order that we may give a professional performance for your entertainment; but rather to do our best as we give praise and worship to God.

We have just two weeks left to prepare. If you haven't been with the choir in previous years, this is your opportunity to join in.

We have a great time with lots of fun. Don't take my word for it - join us to find out.

Please Note

Only ONE collection will be taken up on the day
Everything in the collection bag will be given to Cransley Hospice

There will also be a 'Bring & Share' pot luck lunch following the service

Pr Roy Hulbert

Pr Roy Hulbert is in Lamport Ward, KGH. Due to a flu outbreak visits to Lamport Ward are limited to 10 minutes wearing a mask and gown until further notice.
